HISTORICAL SKETCH

The Massachusetts Missionary Society was organized on May 29, 1799, in Boston. There were thirty-eight charter members, mainly followers of the theology of Samuel Hopkins. They were "impelled by a deep commiseration for the unhappy state of those who were perishing for lack of those precious means of salvation which we enjoy." Their intention was to spread "the knowledge of the glorious Gospel of Christ among the poor Heathens and in those remote parts of our country in which the inhabitants had not enjoyed the benefits of a Christian ministry and Christian ordinances," i.e., outside Massachusetts. Nathaniel Emmons, fifty-four years pastor at Franklin, was the first president.

ORIGIN OF DOMESTIC MISSIONARY SOCIETY

In 1827 the Massachusetts Missionary Society and the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper (which had come into being in 1818 to "see every parish in the State well supplied with a faithful Minister of Christ"), were united under the name of the Massachusetts Missionary Society. This meant that while the Domestic Missionary Society of Massachusetts Proper lost its name, the Massachusetts Missionary Society was henceforth to work almost exclusively in Massachusetts.

The Massachusetts Missionary Society became the Massachusetts "Home" Missionary Society in 1844. This was simply to emphasize that the work of the Society had become exclusively for America and for the Massachusetts part of America.

ORIGIN OF MASSACHUSETTS CONFERENCE

The General Association of Massachusetts came into being in 1802. This ultimately became the Massachusetts Congregational Conference. The Conference then merged with the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society in 1927, to become the Massachusetts Congregational Conference and Missionary Society. This was the result of twenty-seven years' agitation, accelerated by a recommendation of the National Council in 1907. The charter of the Massachusetts Home Missionary Society was used as the basis for the union of the two organizations. In 1953 the name was changed to Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. The Conference assumes responsibility for all Congregational missionary work done in Massachusetts. It supports a staff of fourteen persons who give ministerial and executive leadership to a broad program of work designed to help the churches, to develop the fellowship of the ministers and churches, and to cultivate practical support for denominational and interdenominational projects and programs.

BY-LAWS OF THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

ARTICLE I

Purpose and Terminology

1. The purposes of the Conference are as stated in its Charter.
2. Whenever in these By-Laws the word Conference is used it shall be held to refer to the Corporation as a Conference of the United Church of Christ and as a Conference of Massachusetts Congregational Christian Churches.
3. All churches which are members of associations in voluntary fellowship with and recognized by the Conference, whether or not such churches are a part of the United Church of Christ, are entitled to elect voting members of the Conference in accordance with these By-Laws.

ARTICLE II

Denominational Basis

Following Congregational principles, this Conference shall under no circumstances exercise authority over churches or individuals or interfere with the government or discipline of the churches. It shall advise and counsel the churches when requested, but it is recognized that each church has the power of self-determination in all matters.

ARTICLE III

Doctrinal Basis

This Conference declares its steadfast allegiance to the faith which our fathers confessed, which, from age to age, has found its expression in the historic creeds of the Church Universal and of this Communion.

ARTICLE IV

Membership

Voting Members. Every Church or Congregation which is or shall become a member of an association in fellowship with the Conference may annually choose two delegates (of whom it is suggested one shall be a layman and the other a laywoman) and these delegates, together with the pastor or pastors of each church (who shall be members ex officio), the officers of the Conference (including the members of the Board of Trustees and any person who shall have been elected an Officer Emeritus), the committee members of the Conference shall constitute the voting membership of the Conference; provided, however, that pastors shall have the privileges of honorary members only unless they shall have ministerial standing in an association in fellowship with the Conference.

Honorary Members. Delegates from corresponding bodies and persons appointed to speak before the Conference, such persons as may be made honorary members by a vote of the Board of Trustees, and such other persons as the Conference may from time to time vote to admit, shall be honorary members of the Conference, with the privilege of speaking, but without vote.

ARTICLE V

Officers

1. There shall be a Moderator, one or more Vice-Moderators, a Recording Secretary, all of whom shall be nominated by the Nominating Committee hereinafter provided for, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen.

2. The executive officers of the Conference shall be a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, and Assistant Treasurer and such other officers as the Conference may from time to time elect. Any of the said Executive Offices except those of President, Secretary and Treasurer may be abolished by vote of the Conference. These officers shall constitute the Executive Staff. They shall be nominated by the Board of Trustees meeting in executive session, and elected by ballot at each annual meeting of the Conference for a term of one year and until their respective successors are chosen. They shall bear such additional titles as the Conference or the Board of Trustees determine.

3. The Conference shall elect by ballot a Board of Trustees of at least one Trustee from each Association and from any Association having churches with a total membership of more than 10,000, an additional Trustee for each excess 10,000 church members or major fraction thereof, one member from the Board of Directors of the City Missionary Society of Boston, Inc., and six (6) members-at-large, of whom one (1) shall be chosen each even-numbered year, and two (2) each odd-numbered year. The President, the Moderator and the Vice-Moderator, and Chairmen of all Conference standing committees, shall also be members ex officio. One-third of the representatives of the Associations upon the Board shall be ministers, one-third laymen, and one-third laywomen as nearly as may be. Nine members shall constitute a quorum. The term of office shall be four years, and no member having served a full term shall be eligible for re-election until after one year, but members-at-large may serve for two consecutive terms.

The Conference shall from time to time designate the Associations from which Trustees are to be chosen in the successive years and determine whether the Trustees to be chosen from a particular Association in any year shall be a minister, a layman, or a laywoman.

Each Association shall be notified by the Secretary of the Conference on or before September 15 when it is its turn to propose to the nominating committee a candidate for membership upon the Board, and whether such candidate should be a minister, a layman or a laywoman, and the names of such candidates shall be reported to the Secretary before April 1, of each year. The Secretary upon the receipt of these names shall communicate them to the nominating committee on or before April 10. In case any Association fails to propose a candidate the Board of Trustees shall perform this duty.

At its first meeting after each annual meeting of the Conference the Board shall choose one of its members to serve as chairman for the ensuing year. Except as otherwise provided in the charter of the Conference or in these by-laws, the Board shall administer and dispose of the property of the Conference and shall manage all its business and affairs, and all officers and agents of the Conference shall act under its direction. The Board shall cause the accounts of the Treasurer to be audited at least once each year by certified public accountants selected by the Board.

Without restricting the generality of the foregoing, the Board shall in particular have the following powers:

- (a) To choose a Clerk, to appoint its own meetings and form its own rules of business, to appoint committees and to delegate any of its powers to such committees.
- (b) To appoint and, at pleasure, remove all agents of the Conference and to define their duties.
- (c) To fill any vacancy in any office of the Conference (including vacancies in the membership of the Board) until the vacancy shall be filled at a succeeding meeting of the Conference.
- (d) To remove any officer of the Conference (other than members of the Board) who may be guilty of disregard of his duties or of such conduct as shall be seriously prejudicial to the interests of the Conference.
- (e) To direct efforts to promote missionary interest and giving among the churches of the Conference.

4. The terms of all officers, save when chosen to fill vacancies, shall begin at the close of the meeting at which they are elected.

He shall be a member ex officio of all standing committees named in the by-laws with the exception of the nominating committee. He shall have the power to delegate to members of the Staff the authority to represent him upon any of the said standing committees. He shall be the representative of the Conference and of its Board of Trustees among all the churches (both those financially independent and those aided by the funds of the Conference) and in all denominational and interdenominational gatherings (including meetings of Conference Executives) unless representation is otherwise provided. He may seek to assist pastors and churches with fraternal counsel. He shall keep informed as to opportunities for extension work through founding new churches or strengthening old ones and shall recommend to the Conference and to the Board of Trustees measures for meeting such opportunities.

3. The Secretary shall keep the records of the Conference, except as hereinafter provided, and shall assist in its general work under the direction of the President. He shall devote himself in co-operation with the Area Ministers and under the direction of the President, to counseling with and assisting the churches in the area assigned to him, and shall perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the Board of Trustees or the President. He shall furnish copies of the record certified under the seal of the Conference (which shall be in his keeping) to such persons as may be entitled thereto.

The Secretary shall collect and publish in connection with the Annual Report of the Conference the statistics of ministers and churches and make up the official roll of the ministers and churches in accordance with the usages of the denomination. He shall present to the Conference at its annual meeting a general statistical statement of the progress of religion in the churches for the past calendar year. He shall give suitable notice to the churches of the time and place of each annual meeting, notify officers and committees of their election or appointment and fulfill such other functions as the Conference or the Board of Trustees may from time to time direct.

4. The Treasurer shall receive and hold the property of the Conference subject to the direction of the Board of Trustees and shall keep particular accounts of the Conference's funds and of the disposal thereof. 7. The Minister or, if he is not ordained, the Director of the Laity shall have special charge for deepening and strengthening Christian life and witness among the men and women of the churches of the Conference. He shall, under the direction of the President, assist so far as he may be able in the general work of the Conference.

8. The Minister or Ministers of Christian Education shall encourage and promote the whole program of religious education as well as Christian living and Christian activities among the churches of the Conference. He, or she, or they, shall, under the direction of the President, assist, so far as able, in the general work of the Conference.

9. The Recording Secretary shall record the complete minutes of each annual meeting and shall transcribe and deliver the same to the Secretary. The Board of Trustees may, at their discretion, appoint a deputy to assist in the keeping of the records under the direction of the Recording Secretary.

ARTICLE VII

Retirement and Annuity

1. No person shall continue as a member of the Executive Staff beyond the close of the Annual Meeting following his 70th birthday. With respect to employees not members of the Executive Staff, it shall be the policy of the Conference to retire every such employee upon his or her attaining the age of seventy years, provided, however, that this shall not affect the power of the Trustees temporarily to employ from time to time persons who have passed that age (including former members of the executive staff) whenever in particular cases the Trustees shall deem such temporary employment essential to the efficient conduct of the Conference's work.

2. Ordained ministers who are members of the executive staff shall be expected to be members of the Annuity Fund for Congregational Ministers, and the Conference shall not provide for them any other retirement annuity. Toward each annual premium in the Annuity Fund of any member of the staff the Conference shall pay each year an amount equal to 11% of the charge on his salary.

3. Lay members of the staff shall be expected to be, so far as practicable, members of the Retirement Fund for Lay Workers, and the Conference shall pay, as the annual premium for each lay worker who is a member of the Fund, 8% of the charge on his salary plus such amount as the Conference as employer shall pay for his United States Social Security.

ARTICLE VIII

Meetings

1. The Conference shall hold its regular annual meeting for the choice of officers, the hearing of reports, the discussion of matters of general interest and the transaction of other business at a place designated by the Board of Trustees on the third Monday of May, or at such other time in the month of May as the Board of Trustees may deem expedient.

2. Special meetings of the Conference shall be convened at such times and places as may be determined by the Board of Trustees, provided, however, that notice of any special meeting so convened shall, at least one week before the date of the meeting, be sent by mail to each of the churches connected with the Conference, posted in the general office of the Conference and printed in newspapers published in Boston, Worcester and Springfield.

3. The Moderator or, in his absence, one of the Vice-Moderators or, in the absence of all of them some member of the Board of Trustees shall call the Conference to order.

4. At each annual meeting the Conference shall adopt and propose to the churches the annual rate of Fellowship dues for the expenses and other purposes of the Conference. The Conference, upon recommendations of the Board of Trustees, shall at each annual meeting determine the amount to be retained from Our Christian World Mission giving of the churches.

ARTICLE IX

Committees

1. Immediately after the opening of the annual meeting the Moderator shall appoint:

- (a) A Committee on Credentials, to which all credentials shall be referred.
- (b) A Business Committee, the duty of which shall be to prepare and present at each session all matters of business not presented through some other committee of the Conference.

2. The following standing committees shall be elected by viva voce vote:

- (a) A Nominating Committee composed of nine members, consisting of the retiring Moderator of each annual meeting, together with eight other members, of whom at least two shall be ministers, at least two shall be women and at least two shall be laymen. Each year the Board of Trustees, meeting in executive session, shall select four persons whom they shall nominate at the annual meeting of the Conference to be elected to serve for two years. The retiring members shall not be eligible for re-election for at least one year.

This committee shall nominate all officers and committees whose nominations are not otherwise provided for in these by-laws.

- (b) A Program Committee, of which the Moderator, Vice Moderator, the secretary of the Conference and the pastor of the church which is to entertain the next annual meeting, shall be members ex officio. At each annual meeting three (3) members shall be elected for three years. This committee shall prepare the program for the next annual meeting.
- (c) A Committee on Christian Education. At each annual meeting four members shall be elected to serve for three years. The task of the committee shall be to promote and develop the educational ministry of Associations and churches, as a means of nurturing Christian growth and commitment in children, youth and adults.

The work of the Committee on Christian Education shall be done through various sub-committees, including, but not limited to, the program areas of children's ministry, youth ministry, adult ministry, family life, the church and the arts and camps and conferences. The sub-committees may co-opt persons of special interest and skill.

- (d) A Committee on Christian Social Action, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of the committee to promote interest in moral and social issues among the churches of the Conference. The committee shall be authorized to present and to support publicly such principles and measures as have been adopted by the Conference.
- (e) A Committee on the Ministry consisting of approximately thirty members: ten at large, three of whom shall be laymen or laywomen, two of the ten to be elected at each annual meeting for a term of five years; the remaining to be composed of the Chairman of each association Committee on the Ministry. It shall be the duty of this Committee to endeavor to establish and maintain high standards for our ministry and churches.

The Conference shall maintain a special roll of ministers to which names may have been transferred by the associations. This special roll shall be in charge of the Conference Committee on the Ministry, and the presence of a name there shall constitute evidence that the man has been duly ordained and has had standing in a member association; but the Committee shall not issue credentials to a man whose name appears on this roll unless they find in concurrence with the Committee on the Ministry in his association, that his character and qualifications are satisfactory.

- (f) A committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, consisting of one member from each association, who shall be either the chairman of the association committee on Evangelism and Devotional Life, or, where such a committee does not exist nor function, one from the association who has an interest in this area of church life, such a latter person to be recommended by the moderator of each association upon request of the Nominating Committee. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections. In addition there shall be six members-at-large, for a term of three years, two each year.

It shall be the duty of the committee to advance the interest of the churches to witness to the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ in the communities where our churches exist, to seek to evangelize the unchurched and the inactive memberships of our churches by means and methods commensurate with those of our national Office on Evangelism.

- (g) A Committee on Our Christian World Mission. Each of the sixteen associations shall nominate a member of this Committee who shall represent the missionary committee of the association. The term of office shall be three years, and the alphabetical list of associations shall be divided into three groups, and these three groups shall rotate in making their elections.

There shall also be three ex officio members, two representing the Committee of the Laity, and one the Department of Young People's Work.

The Committee shall meet at least twice a year, and an executive committee shall be chosen, to meet as frequently as occasion requires. It shall be the duty of this Committee to advance the interest of the churches in the work and support of Our Christian World Mission.

- (h) A Committee on the Town and Country Church, consisting of nine members, of whom three shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to co-operate with the national Commission on the Town and Country Church and to offer such practical helps and encouragement as may be possible and welcomed by our churches in the town and country areas.
- (i) A Committee on the Urban Church, consisting of fifteen members of whom five shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three years. It shall be the duty of this committee to study the special problems and opportunities for Christian service of churches in the urban areas and to offer such practical helps as may be possible and welcomed by the churches in these areas.
- (j) A Conference Centers Committee. The operation and management of the Conference Centers at Framingham and Craigville and any other properties designated by the Trustees as Conference Centers shall be in the hands of a State Conference Committee, to be called the Conference Centers Committee, as the agency of the Conference, responsible to the Board of Trustees. This Committee shall consist of fifteen (15) members, approximately one-third ministers, one-third laymen and one-third laywomen to be elected for three-year terms, so arranged that one person shall be elected annually from each of the five areas served by the Area Ministers.

The Conference Centers Committee shall elect its own officers and sub-committee chairmen and may co-opt such additional persons as may be necessary to the effective functioning of the committees.

No member having served two (2) full consecutive terms shall be eligible for reelection until after a lapse of one (1) year.

- (k) A Committee on Campus Ministries consisting of nine (9) members, of whom three (3) shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three (3) years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the opportunities for developing religious programs among students and faculty at the college and university level; to cooperate with local churches, denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this specialized field; and to review requests for Conference aid for the support of student programs within Massachusetts.
- (l) A Committee on Christian Unity consisting of fifteen (15) members, five (5) of whom shall be elected for a term of one year at the annual meeting adopting this By-Law, five (5) of whom for a term of two years, five (5) of whom for a term of three years, and thereafter five (5) shall be elected at each annual meeting for a term of three (3) years. It shall be the duty of this Committee to study the opportunities to promote and achieve Christian Unity and to cooperate with denominational and interdenominational agencies working in this field.
- (m) A committee of the Laity, the whole people of God, consisting of an executive group of 22 members-at-large, geographically representative, nominated by the Conference Nominating Committee; and three members from each association, persons of special competence, a layman, a laywoman, and a member of the clergy, nominated by the executive committee of each association, shall be elected for a three-year term at the annual meeting. Executive members' terms shall be rotated by means of year classes, and association members' terms may be three consecutive years, without additional re-elective privileges. Should an association fail to nominate persons, nominations for that association will be supplied by the executive group of this committee. The committee shall elect its own chairman, vice-chairmen, secretary, and commission, and/or sub-committee chairmen annually.

It shall be the responsibility of this committee to increase, develop, and coordinate the activities and participation of Christian men and women, to interpret the theology of the laity, to enable the renewal of the laity, and to explore new forms of ministry to the world through studies in Christian Faith, Life and Work. Area assemblies of grouped associations may be used in study, planning, and training to share ideas, purposes, programs, projects and new ventures within the associations, and/or districts, local churches and groups, whereby new understanding of the true mission of the laity will be implemented.

The Conference Committee of the Laity may co-opt persons of special competence as it deems wise and helpful to provide resources, information, and guidance for association, district and local church groups, to the end that growth experience in worship, study and service may be nurtured for: (1) laity in the church, (2) the church addressing itself in mission, and (3) the laity at work in the world. The Conference Committee of the Laity will continue the work formerly carried on by the Laymen's Council and the Women's Fellowship.

3. Such other committees as the Conference may vote to constitute shall be elected by viva voce vote at each annual meeting for such terms as the Conference shall determine. The Board of Trustees shall present at each annual meeting a list of the committees, the appointment of which it recommends.

4. It shall be the general practice of the Conference, without making it an arbitrary rule, that at least one-third of its committee members be laywomen and one-third laymen.

5. The reports of all committees that are to be presented to the Conference shall be furnished to the Secretary on or before April first of each year, and shall be printed and distributed to the churches not less than two weeks before the annual meeting. These reports shall not be read to the Conference save by special order, but the Program Committee may arrange for the adequate discussion of any or all of the topics presented in the reports.

6. A person who is a member of any committee ex officio shall be entitled to vote.

ARTICLE X

MINUTES of the
167th ANNUAL MEETING
MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL
CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

May 13-15, 1966

HOPE CONGREGATIONAL CHURCH
Springfield, Mass.

The 167th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference was called to order by the Moderator, the Rev. Paul D. Tiller of Natick, at 2:30 P.M. on Friday, May 13, 1966, in the Hope Congregational Church, Springfield, Massachusetts.

The Rev. Daniel Leavitt of Longmeadow led the opening devotional service.

The Moderator presented the Rev. Dr. Charles W. Barnes, minister of the host church, who welcomed the delegates on behalf of the church.

The Moderator then presented the Rev. Boardman W. Kathan, recently returned from England, who brought the greetings of sister churches in the British Isles and in particular from the Rev. Dr. Ralph Calder, Executive of the Congregational Church Union. Mr. Kathan had led a group of 14 young people from our Massachusetts churches who toured England as part of the People-to-People exchange. Mr. Kathan was particularly impressed with the Youth Ministry, the family church concept, the lay preachers, the house church groups and the evening services of the Congregational churches of England in which new forms of worship have been pioneered. The Congregational Church Union of England and Wales is now writing a new statement of faith and conversations are being held with the Presbyterians regarding church union.

The Rev. Dr. Charles Barnes introduced Honorable Charles V. Ryan, Mayor of Springfield, who brought the greetings of the city.

The Rev. Thomas Howard, Chairman of the Conference Committee on Christian Unity, introduced a group of official observers to our Annual Meeting, including: Rev. Langford Baldwin, Springfield, Rector of All Saints Church; Rev. Paul Berube, Wilmington, Boston Diocesan Ecumenical Commission; Rt. Rev. Henri Hamel, Fall River, Chairman of Fall River Diocese Comm. for Christian Unity; Rt. Rev. Joseph Johnson, Springfield, Springfield Diocese; Bro. Laurent, C.F.X., Shrewsbury, Worcester Diocesan Ecumenical Comm.; Rev. Charles McEachern, Springfield, Sec. of Conf. of Baptist Ministers; Rev. Stephen Papadoulis, Springfield, St. George Greek Orthodox Church; Rev. William Stayton, Gloucester, Mass., Baptist Comm. on Christian Unity; Dr. H. Hughes Wagner, Springfield, Member of Comm. on Ecumenical Affairs of N. E. Conference of Methodist Church; Rt. Rev. David Welch, Springfield, Editor of the Diocesan Newspaper "Observer."

The Moderator appointed the following committees:

Business Committee—Rev. Harvey F. Ammerman, Framingham, Chairman; Mrs. Clifton Bradley, Hanover; Rev. Charles G. Christianson, Leominster; Rev. R. Berwyn Daniels, Stoneham; Rev. David J. Dean, Springfield; Mrs. Ralph R. Johnson, Dalton; Mr. Ralph F. Tuller, Arlington.

Credentials Committee—Rev. Alexander L. Chandler, Falmouth, Chairman; Miss Doris Hillsgrove, Watertown; Mrs. Harold G. Lundberg, Springfield; Mrs. Harold D. Weymouth, Springfield.

Ushers—Rev. Norman B. Crook, Chesterfield, Chairman; Rev. George H. Bennett, Springfield; Rev. John F. Callahan, Raynham; Rev. Robert B. Daggett, Williamsburg; Rev. Peter Diehl, South Hadley; Rev. R. Bricker Gibson, Southbridge; Rev. Harry E. Greene, North Wilbraham; Rev. Harris B. Hinchcliff, Lenox; Rev. Stanley G. Russell, Orange; Rev. H. Ellsworth White, Jr., South Dartmouth.

The Moderator introduced Mr. Lincoln S. Cain of Pittsfield who would serve as parliamentarian.

Mrs. Myron W. Bemis, Chairman of the Board of Trustees, presented the following report:

The Trustees have held seven (7) General Meetings this past year, aside from the various sub-committees to which all are assigned. For the most part, the meetings were alternated, with every other one held in Boston from 10:00 a.m. to 1:00 p.m., the others convening at 4:00 p.m. in the Framingham Conference Center, with a fine dinner meeting and then lasting until about 9:00 p.m.

This seemed to be an excellent arrangement, and the attendance was very good.

You have all received the Advance Reports and must realize the vast amount of work that is involved and carefully executed by our very competent and dedicated staff.

Many decisions have had to be made and crucial and significant choices will be submitted to you later for your consideration and approval. By agreement of the Trustees we are deferring the matter of Conference ADVANCE to the first business session on Saturday. This will be presented by the co-chairmen, the Rev. John E. Wallace, of Wellesley Hills, and Mr. Albert O. Wilson, Jr., Lexington.

The recommendation concerning a change of Conference Name will be submitted by Mr. Ralph F. Tuller of Arlington. Mr. Loomis Patrick of Boston, Chairman of the Committee on Conference Structure, will give the report for his committee, including the proposed changes in By-Laws as recommended by his sub-committee and the trustees.

At the September meeting a tribute was read in memory of Mrs. Adolph G. Ekdahl, who died on August 13, 1965. We were mindful of her sound ministry. She had served the Conference faithfully for twenty-three years, with an educated mind and a disciplined spirit. These words were conveyed to her family.

In March the death of Mr. Axel H. Anderson was reported, and it was voted that the President of the Conference send a note of appreciation to Mrs. Axel H. Anderson recognizing the many years he had been an active Trustee and a great supporter of Conference programs.

Some of you who thumb through the pages of the annual report will feel very little personal involvement in the work our churches are doing through the State Conference. But you have a part in making decisions. We need your growing interest and concern. Others who will read the reports are veteran "insiders" in conference doings.

But none of us "know it all."

As we enter another Conference year, let's all take a long, honest look at the chaotic world in which we live. Then, let's consider prayerfully what the church is working to accomplish in the face of this kind of world. May the spirit of these words from the Ephesian letter be ours in the coming year.

"We are meant to hold firmly to the truth in love, and to grow up in every way into Christ."

Respectfully submitted,

MRS. MYRON W. BEMIS

Chairman of the Trustees 1965-1966

VOTED: That the Advance Reports be received.

The Rev. James L. Lancaster of South Hadley, Chairman of the Conference Budget Committee, presented the proposed 1967 budget. Interpretation of the amount to be retained from OCWM receipts, the basic emphasis of Mission and in particular, Mission in Massachusetts, the differences to be realized from a change in policy regarding Family Thank Offering and less money to be received from the Board of Homeland Ministries for Campus Ministries was given. Following questions and discussion, it was moved and VOTED: That the proposed budget of $606,000 for 1967 be received.

It was further moved and VOTED: That the Per Capita dues for 1967 remain at $1.00 per member.

And it was moved and

VOTED: That in 1967 the Conference retain from OCWM receipts a sum not to exceed $225,000.

The Moderator called upon Rev. Allen P. Hollis, a member of a special study committee on Ministers' Salaries, a subcommittee of the Conference Committee on the Ministry. Copies of this report had been mailed to all ministers and delegates. Mr. Hollis gave a digest of this report and answered some questions.

It was moved and

VOTED: That this Conference accept the report of the Study on the Ministers' Salaries, as recommended by the Board of Trustees, and that this study and salary schedule be accepted as guidelines for use by the Minister of the Conference, Area Ministers, Board of Pastoral Supply and Association Committees on the Ministry for purposes of counselling ministers and churches.

The Rev. Harvey F. Ammerman of Framingham, Chairman of the Business Committee, presented the first resolution for consideration. After considerable discussion, the following amended resolution on Civil Rights was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS, We have in times past affirmed our commitment to the principles of freedom and the struggle for equality as based on our Gospel and guaranteed in our Constitution, and,

WHEREAS, the equal rights that have been couched in law are not being sought in life, and,

WHEREAS, we have become increasingly aware of the depth of frustration of minorities of our Commonwealth over the lack of fulfillment of these rights:

Therefore, be it RESOLVED, that we dedicate ourselves and urge our churches and ministers to action directed towards the full enforcement of Massachusetts and federal laws designed to uphold and strengthen civil rights, and,

Be it further RESOLVED, that we encourage action directing the use of federal, state and private resources towards promoting equality in fact, and.

Be it further RESOLVED, that we seek the leadership of our churches in organizing channels of equal opportunity for all citizens, and,

Be it further RESOLVED that we urge seminary placement offices, Conference and other placement agencies, local pastoral committees and local congregations to interview, recommend and call ministers on the basis of their preparation for, experience in and dedication to the Christian ministry without regard to race or ethnic origin.

The Rev. Mr. Ammerman then presented the resolution on The Right to Dissent and the Rev. David J. Dean of Springfield, a member of the Business Committee, spoke on it. After considerable discussion, it was moved and VOTED: That the resolution on The Right to Dissent be referred back to the Business Committee for further consideration.

At 5:00 p.m., the Moderator called for the Order of the Day and introduced the Rev. Paul E. Shanabrook, Regional Director of the Stewardship Council of the United Church of Christ, who addressed the Annual Meeting on the subject, "The Revolution in Stewardship." Highlighting the "colony of Abundance in which we live surrounded by an ocean of poverty," the government's increasing role of benevolence, the Church's need to reexamine its role in relationship to government, its giving, its awareness of need, Mr. Shanabrook raised key questions regarding the Church's unique mission in the world and ways in which this mission must be met and financed.

The Rev. Thomas P. Howard of Franklin, Chairman of the Conference Committee on Christian Unity, gave the closing prayer and led in the singing of the hymn "God of Grace and God of Glory."

The Fellowship Dinners were held at 6:30 p.m. in the cafeteria of the American International College and in Hope Congregational Church. Those ministers who are observing their 50th year in the ministry were recognized and those men who had been ordained during the past year were presented.

Following dinner, a dramatic presentation of the Program of Advance was given in the sanctuary of Hope Church.

At 9:00 a.m., on Saturday morning, May 14, the Moderator called the meeting to order and the Rev. Mervyn M. Morse of Abington led the devotions.

The Moderator introduced the Minister and President of the Conference, Dr. Albert J. Penner, who presented the Executive Staff. Special mention was made of the retirement of the Rev. Dr. Kenneth D. Beckwith and the Rev. Baldwin W. Callahan. Recognition of these men has been made in special luncheons and receptions. Dr. Penner also spoke warm words of appreciation for the work of Mr. W. Elliott Pratt, Jr., who has been Conference Treasurer for ten years and will now assume the office of Assistant Treasurer while Miss Pauline Cutler becomes Conference Treasurer.

Dr. Penner then read his report and it was moved and VOTED: That the report of the Minister and President be accepted.

Mr. Tiller then called on Mr. Loomis Patrick, Chairman of the Committee on Conference Structure, to bring the report of that Committee. This Committee has made recommendations concerning the change of name, Areas and Area Ministers, Headquarters and Headquarters' staff, changes in By-Laws and a proposed survey of Conference Structure. In addition, the Committee expects to consider in the near future a further study of staffing, ecumenical activities of the staff, continuation of a Conference Structure Committee. Mr. Patrick welcomed questions and discussion. It was moved and VOTED: That the report of the Committee on the Conference Structure be accepted as circulated.

The Moderator then presented Mr. Ralph R. Tuller of Arlington, Chairman of the Committee on Change of Name. Following a summary of previous actions and the experience that has brought the Conference to this point, and some discussion, it was moved and

VOTED: That the name of this corporation be changed from the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference to Massachusetts Conference of the United Church of Christ. (670—yes, 53—no.)

Mr. Patrick was called on to speak on the matter of changes in By-Laws, as recommended by the Board of Trustees, and mailed to ministers and delegates in advance of this Annual Meeting. After brief discussion, it was moved and

VOTED: To amend the By-Laws as set forth in the document entitled "Suggested Changes to the By-Laws" as presented to this meeting, such amendments to take effect immediately except that Article XIV relating to the change of name on the seal shall not be effective until the Secretary of State of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts shall have granted a certificate of the new name, and excepting also that any change in the term or number of members of the Board of Trustees or a committee shall not affect any person heretofore elected to the Board of Trustees or such committee.

Mr. Lincoln S. Cain, at the request of the Moderator, introduced Dr. Donald C. Dearborn, President of Catawba College, Salisbury, North Carolina, who brought the greetings of the Executive Council of the United Church of Christ and addressed his remarks to the major concerns of the United Church of Christ: (1) the chasm that has begun to grow between the local parish church and its critics and expressed the hope that the Emphasis on the Mission of the Local Church, to begin in 1968-9, would help to stem this tide; (2) Finances and the need for increased giving; (3) Ecumenical—that we are moving rapidly toward church union and are more and more aware of our need to do more and more with others; (4) Peace—what can we in the Protestant Church, USA, do to promote Peace? A committee has been appointed by the Executive Council to review all the program or institutions that are oriented toward Peace. Ways must be found to involve us in this thinking—to move Peace from the Periphery of our life to the very center of it and to ask all people to consider it with us.

Mr. George Collins, a member of the Committee on Christian Unity, led in prayer and a hymn.

There were six luncheons dealing with all phases of the Advance Program.

The Moderator called the meeting to order at 3:30 p.m. and called on Mr. Ammerman to present the resolution on gambling. After a brief discussion, it was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS, Massachusetts history has shown that gambling in any form has resulted in higher welfare costs, higher police costs, higher taxes, and

WHEREAS, Massachusetts history has shown that legal gambling in any form has resulted in more illegal gambling, more corruption, more graft, more crime, and

WHEREAS, 122 members of the Massachusetts House of Representatives have seen fit to vote for a bill legalizing gambling in the form of Beano;

Therefore, be it RESOLVED that we, the elected delegates of the 167th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, do re-affirm our opposition to legalized gambling in all forms and commend the 95 members of the Massachusetts House of Representatives for their vote against legalized gambling in the form of Beano.

Be it further RESOLVED that we call upon our State Senators to defeat the legalization of Beano.

The Rev. David Dean, who spoke for the above motion, urged ministers and delegates to write to their Senators about this matter and reported that the Business Committee was prepared to write immediately to the State Senators.

The Rev. Dr. Harry B. Miner of Newburyport, Chairman of the Nominating Committee, presented the report of that committee. Mimeographed copies of the nominations of committee members, delegates to the Annual Assembly of the Massachusetts Council of Churches and Delegates and Alternates to the Sixth General Synod were passed out and it was moved and VOTED: That the Clerk cast one ballot for the nominations for committees and delegates as printed.

The ballots for elected officers of the Conference were passed out, marked and collected by the tellers. 551 ballots were cast and all officers nominated, were elected.

Two amendments were voted at the Fifth General Synod concerning the Constitution of the United Church of Christ and they require the endorsement of the Conferences: (1) Paragraph 19 was amended by adding the following words "except that no ordained minister who has full standing in the United Church of Christ shall be ineligible to be a delegate to the General Council or to hold elective office in that body," following the phrase "nor shall any member of such a Church be a delegate to the General Synod or hold elective office in that body," and Paragraph 77a was added as follows: "77a The General Synod recognizes the United Church Foundation, Inc., as the instrumentality of the United Church of Christ to receive gifts from individuals and organizations, to hold such funds and property as may be entrusted or conveyed to it by the General Synod and other organizations and to administer, invest and reinvest the same and other funds in trust or otherwise." After further interpretation, it was moved and VOTED: The Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, meeting on the 14th day of May, 1966, at Springfield, Massachusetts, hereby approves the amendment to paragraph 19 of the Constitution of the United Church of Christ, and the addition of paragraph 77a to the Constitution of the United Church of Christ, as adopted by a 2/3 affirmative vote of the delegates present and voting at the Fifth General Synod on Saturday, July 3, 1965.

The Moderator then called on Rev. John E. Wallace of Wellesley Hills and Mr. Albert O. Wilson, Jr. of Lexington, Co-Chairmen of the Committee on Advance, who brought an enabling resolution to the Annual Meeting. Considerable and lengthy discussion ensued in which much concern was expressed for the necessity of completing the Conference survey study prior to the Advance program; that all care be taken to see that the Breakthrough program not be endangered by this program; that consideration of other programs and projects not now listed in the Advance material might be considered. There were fears expressed that our churches are not ready for this program, that there has not been sufficient communication, study, grass roots involvement in the planning. After two votes calling for a reconsideration of last year's action (that the Committee of Advance conduct a financial campaign in the Spring of 1967 and that this Annual Meeting adopt a list of projects) and finally the rescinding of the vote taken at the 1965 Annual Meeting, there was further discussion and it was moved and

VOTED: That we lay on the table the enabling motion as presented at the conclusion of the Advance Committee's report until the work outlined in Paragraph V of that report (relating to the study of Conference structure) is completed. (343—Yes; 203—No.)

The afternoon session was adjourned at 6:30 p.m. and supper was served in Hope Church.

The evening program in the sanctuary of Hope Church began with worship led by members of the Committee on Christian Unity. Three speakers addressed the congregation on the topic: "The Church's Involvement in Society." The Rev. Robert F. Drinan, S.J., Dean of Boston College Law School; Mrs. Edwin Newman, Cambridge, Representative in the General Court of Massachusetts, and Mr. Louis H. Berkovitz, Teacher at Temple Immanuel, Worcester, were the guest speakers.

The Moderator reconvened the business session at 9:30 p.m.

The following report of the Credentials Committee was given by the Chairman, the Rev. Alexander L. Chandler, of Falmouth:

Minister Delegates	268
Lay Delegates	479
Ex Officio Delegates	54
Visitors	253

The matter of the Program of Advance was reopened for discussion by request from the floor. Many felt the final action of the afternoon was unsatisfactory and did not adequately express the wishes and desires of those present. Many words of encouragement and confidence were expressed for the Program of Advance and the work of the Committee. After thoroughly considering the risk involved in restating a motion and possibly misinterpreting the discussion of the afternoon session, it was unanimously agreed that the following motion kept faith with the afternoon discussion and more fully expressed the desired action of the delegates. Therefore it was moved and unanimously

VOTED: That this Conference request the Committee on Advance to proceed with its planning in continuing and close consultation with the Associations; and that this Annual Meeting do not adjourn on May 15, but that it recess, to reconvene on call of the Board of Trustees, to receive the report of the Committee on Advance at such time as the Board of Trustees determine that the structure survey has been sufficiently advanced.

The delegates were cautioned that the structure survey may take several months and that the reconvened Annual Meeting should not be expected for some months.

The Rev. Harvey Ammerman, Chairman of the Business Committee, suggested that in the interests of time, the remaining resolutions on World Peace, Tenpoint Program Toward Peace in Vietnam (with a new first paragraph which he read), War on Poverty, Breakthrough Goal be sent to the churches for their consideration. It was moved and VOTED: That the remaining resolutions be sent to the churches as prepared by the Business Committee for consideration and study.

It was moved and

VOTED: WHEREAS the hospitality we enjoy at a State Conference gathering is most vital to our effective corporate functioning and to our individual happiness, becoming one of our most precious experiences and memories, and

WHEREAS, many parties have planned and worked to give us the comfortable feel of home and the bracing assurance of foresight and concern, and

WHEREAS, Hope Congregational Church in Springfield, as host for the 167th Annual Meeting of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference, and other cooperating churches and groups in the community (city officials, the police department, American International College—to give only a partial list) have anticipated our wants and masterfully met our needs; and

WHEREAS, many folk have contributed great devotion and skill in our behalf:

Therefore be it RESOLVED, that we extend to our hosts and to all leaders in our thought and worship and fellowship, our highest praise and our heartiest thanks; and Therefore be it further RESOLVED, that this resolution be adopted by a rising vote of appreciation.

It was moved and

VOTED: That the resolution on The Right of Dissent be taken from the table for further consideration.

Following brief discussion, it was moved and

VOTED:

WHEREAS, many people are viewing current acts of protest as irresponsible dissent to the laws of our land, and,

WHEREAS, because of this alarm the rights of responsible dissent, of freedom of speech and of peaceable assembly have come under attack sometimes by mobs, sometimes by public officials, and sometimes by the climate of public opinion so that all dissent is viewed as irresponsible, and,

WHEREAS, while we uphold the principle that responsible citizenship implies obedience to the laws of the land, nevertheless, one of the principles on which our denomination was founded was the right to dissent from man's law when such law is at variance with religious conscience, and,

WHEREAS, we agree completely with Richard Cardinal Cushing that, "The right to dissent is among the most precious of our national values and it must continue to be preserved at whatever cost,".

Therefore, be it RESOLVED, that we urge on all the members of all our churches in these tense times to continue to do everything in their power to protect these essential rights, and,

Be it further RESOLVED, that they support and continue efforts to educate the public regarding basic constitutional rights, and,

We call their attention to the appropriateness for our own society of the words of Pastor Niemoller when he said:

"In Germany they first came for the Communists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Communist. Then they came for the Jews, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a Jew. Then they came for the trade unionists, and I didn't speak up because I wasn't a trade unionist. Then they came for the Catholics, and I didn't speak up because I was a Protestant. Then they came for me—and by that time no one was left to speak up."

The meeting adjourned at 11:00 p.m.

At 8:30 a.m. on Sunday, May 15, Dr. Albert J. Penner and Dr. Charles W. Barnes led the Communion Service. The Rev. Dr. Kenneth D. Beckwith gave the Communion meditation and members of the Executive Staff served as deacons and deaconesses.

At 10:30 a.m. in the Springfield Municipal Auditorium, the Lord's Day Service was held for Springfield United Church of Christ churches and the combined choirs and ministers participated. The Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglass, Executive Vice President of the Board for Homeland Ministries, gave the sermon: "Who Owns The Church?" At the conclusion of the service, the Rev. Paul D. Tiller, retiring Moderator, presented Mr. Raymond H. Frost, incoming Moderator.

At 12:30 p.m. in the First Church of Christ, Springfield, a dinner program was held, arranged by the Committee on Christian Unity. The Rev. Robert H. Barber, of Concord, served as Chairman and the Rev. Roger Hazelton, member of the Working Committee of the consultation which met in Dallas, May, 1966, spoke on the subject "Where We Stand on the Consultation Re Church Union." The Rev. Dr. Truman B. Douglass gave special comment following the presentation. A question period and discussion followed and the meeting closed at 2:30 p.m.

Respectfully submitted,

S. BURMAN LONG, Recording Secretary

THE REVEREND ALBERT J. PENNER, D.D., President
Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference
Boston, Massachusetts

We have examined the balance sheets of MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE and of MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE, TRUSTEE, as at December 31, 1965, and the related statements of income for the year ended at that date. Our examination was made in accordance with generally accepted auditing standards, and accordingly included such tests of the accounting records and such other auditing procedures as we considered necessary in the circumstances.

The securities representing the invested funds at December 31, 1965, were verified by inspection or confirmation, and the cash in banks and in office by certificate or count.

In our opinion, the accompanying balance sheets and related statements of income present fairly the financial position of the Conference and of the Conference as Trustee, respectively, at December 31, 1965, and the results of their operations for the year ended at that date, in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles applied on a basis consistent with that of the preceding year.

BEQUESTS

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference are used to aid weak churches and to promote the work and interests of the Conference in the State. Bequests may be made permanent funds by the donors, and the Conference restricted to the use of the income only. The practice of the Conference is to divide unrestricted legacies into three equal parts. One part is used for current work, one part is added to the Permanent Legacy Fund, the income only of which is used for general purposes; and the third part is added to a Contingent Fund, the principal of which may be drawn upon to care for special undertakings or to avoid a deficit.

If, on the other hand, a testator specifies that his entire legacy is to be expended as current income and that he does not wish it invested in whole or in part, these directions will be carefully observed.

Bequests to the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference pay no Massachusetts inheritance tax.

Composed of the Congregational churches of the Metropolitan Boston Association, its original object was "to promote religion and morality in Boston and the outlying cities and towns, by establishment and support of evangelical Congregational Churches, Sunday-schools, and Missions." Since 1939 it has had a Board of Directors interlocking with the officers of the Massachusetts Congregational Christian Conference. Its promotional functions have been turned over to the Conference. Its Board of Directors administers the permanent funds of which it is Trustee.

The City Missionary Society has been the social service arm of Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston since 1816. It now has an important place in the life of the Metropolitan Boston Association, whose constitution refers to the Society as "a recognized instrumentality of the Metropolitan Boston Association." In October, 1966, special programs will commemorate the Society's sesquicentennial.

CMS holds membership in the Family Service Section of the Greater Boston Community Council, The American Conference of Social Work, and the New England Camping Association. Its ten missionary social workers are attached to Congregational churches in the inner city, and they work closely with public and private social agencies.

The Society's social workers are aided by many volunteers who engage in numerous useful services of visitation, teaching, manual labor, etc. A Voluntary Case-Aide program has 23 dedicated volunteers from Roxbury and from several suburban communities, assisting the Boston Redevelopment Authority in efforts to relocate multi-problem families. The CMS' Consultant in Christian Education aids inner city churches in programs of leadership education. Through her supervision of "Friendly Town" activities she also helps many small communities to understand inner city people by arranging for them to become "hosts" to city children for two-week summer vacations.

The Society's summer camping programs provide meaningful activity for children of all ages and for adult members of low-income families. Camps Andover-Waldron on Lake Winnisquam, in Meredith, N. H., are open to children 9-16 years of age. They provide opportunities for interracial and intercultural contacts in a Christian setting. Family camps and week-end retreats for church groups are held under CMS sponsorship at the Farrington Memorial property in Lincoln, Mass.

CMS receives no income from United Funds. Principal support comes from Congregational churches in Metropolitan Boston, from interested individuals and trust funds, and from endowment. Much aid in relief comes from the Howard Benevolent Society. Many churches and Sunday Schools regularly aid with collections of clothing and furniture.

The Society's income in the fiscal year ending October 31, 1965, was $265,274 (this amount included legacies of $88,816, some of which were for limited use). Eighty-seven of the 111 churches in the Metropolitan Boston Association contributed $46,993; 47 churches of other associations and denominations gave a total of $3,363. The operating deficit in 1965 was $40,658.

City Missionary Society was incorporated in 1820. Its corporate members are elected at the annual meeting, held in November each year. Every supporting congregation is entitled to nominate a representative to serve for a one-year term on the corporation.

THE CONGREGATIONAL LIBRARY OF THE AMERICAN CONGREGATIONAL ASSOCIATION

(Proprietor of the Congregational House)

ROOM 207, 14 BEACON STREET, BOSTON

The Congregational Library was founded in 1853 to gather and preserve books, pamphlets and manuscripts on Congregational history and to promote the general interests of Congregational churches. In addition to the historic collection on Congregationalism the library has important collections of Bibles, in a variety of languages and versions, hymnals, and histories of local churches and towns. New books, with the exception of fiction, are purchased every week in the fields of: preaching and pastoral work, philosophy and theology, Biblical commentary, church history, religious education, worship and devotion, missions and the ecumenical movement, church arts and architecture, denominations, sects, and world religions, social problems, and biography.

These resources, approximately 200,000 books and pamphlets, are available to ministers, lay preachers, church officers, church school teachers, students, and all interested in reading for enrichment of life. Books are mailed without charge to all parts of the United States. A letter or postcard giving author, title or the subject of books desired, will receive prompt attention. The Library is open for study and research Monday through Friday, 9-5. A copy of a leaflet, "The Congregational Library" and the Bulletin will be sent to those writing for further information.

GRANTS FROM THE MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHRISTIAN CONFERENCE

Grants for the aid of churches and certain other types of work are made by the Conference through the Board of Trustees, following recommendation by the Budget Committee of the Board of Trustees.

Grants are made to local churches (to strengthen the ministry of the church); to hospital chaplaincies; to week-day religious education programs in certain churches; to St. Mark Social Center; to other interdenominational projects in Massachusetts; and other work as need arises. In co-operation with the Committee on Campus Ministries grants are made for student work both on campus and in churches near campuses.

Requests for grants come to the Budget Committee through the member of the Conference executive staff who is particularly concerned either with the area or the type of work.

Grants to local churches are made under the following circumstances:

1. Where a community is too far from a church to benefit from its privileges, the Conference encourages the establishment of regular religious services, and, if possible, the organization of a church, or a branch of a neighboring church.

2. Applications by a church for financial aid should be made by the vote of the church, and upon forms furnished by the Conference, and should have the approval of the Advisory or Grants Committee of the local association of churches.

3. Churches applying for aid should show that they have met in full all financial obligations to their ministers and are doing their utmost toward self-support.

4. In granting aid, different amounts will be appropriated according to the necessity, importance, and prospects of each field.

5. Every church aided by the Conference should consult the Area Minister or President before making arrangements for pastoral service.

6. When the service of the minister or other worker, for whose support an appropriation is made, shall terminate, the appropriation shall lapse, except for special reasons satisfactory to the President.

The Conference advocates adequate compensation for every minister and worker.

The Conference favors hearty co-operation with other denominations, the avoidance of overlapping and competing work, and the consolidation or federation of churches of different denominations in over-churched communities.

We are indicating in this copy of the Minutes the churches that received Conference grants in the year 1965 by placing the reference "$" before the names of these churches in the section of the Minutes entitled, "Associations of Churches and Ministerial Standing." In cases where the grant was discontinued during the year the letter "d" appears.

All grants coincide with the calendar year. Applications must be processed through the association grants committee, or the committee on campus ministries and presented to the area minister by October 1.

Special grants are listed on page .

STATISTICAL TABLES

EXPLANATORY

The tables which follow comprise:

1. The statistics of the churches, giving the ministers, church membership, additions, removals, Sunday school membership, and the amount of benevolences and expenses. These tables, in accordance with the vote of the Conference in 1887, are made to conform to those in the National Year Book;

2. The Associations of Churches, with the names of officers;

3. The Ministerial Standing, giving the date of ordination of each minister, the date of membership in the Association, the residence and his "employment";

4. The Ministerial Record, containing lists of ordinations and deaths.

The tables of the first part contain the names of all the Congregational churches in Massachusetts, the towns and cities being arranged alphabetically. In cases where the post office name of the church and the town differ, heavy type indicates the postal address (or in some cases, the political township), and a cross reference on the page where the post office name would naturally be found will direct the reader to the town name.

Church members are reported as numbered January 1, 1966. Admissions and removals cover the year 1965. "Sunday school" includes total membership of officers, teachers and scholars January 1, 1966, or when the school is in operation (if not at that date), covering "branch schools," "mission schools," and "home departments," so far as maintained by the reporting church.

The months and days in the dates of the organization of churches are omitted. They will be found in the publications of 1873, those of churches since organized being given in the "Minutes" of each year. Months and days in the dates of ordination of Congregational ministers may be found in the lists of the local associations which follow the tables.

Abbreviations in schedule headings are:

"Cld." — Called

"C." — Confession

Reference marks are used as follows:

y Pastor serves more than one church.

—Where no answer can be given.

|| When a church has made no report, items of membership in church, Sunday school and young people's organizations, also home expense, are inserted from the previous Year Book and marked || in the first column of the statistical report. This is done that these items may be included in the summaries and comparative tables, thus minimizing the danger of falsifying the comparisons.

Amount of "Local Expenses" includes all salaries, together with missionary aid received, operating expenses and repairs for church, Sunday school, choir and parish.

In reporting the statistics of federated churches, figures given pertaining to membership and gifts on the apportionment are for the Congregational church within the federated church. Figures pertaining to Church School enrollment, contributions to home expenses are usually for all the churches grouped together in the federated church.

MASSACHUSETTS CONVENTION OF CONGREGATIONAL MINISTERS

Dates from the earliest times of the colony. Annual Business and Public meeting is held at 10:30 A.M., the first Monday in May. At this service several addresses are made and a collection is taken which, together with the income of the Convention fund, is distributed to the needy widows and daughters of deceased Congregational ministers.

Every Trinitarian Congregational and Unitarian Congregational minister resident in Massachusetts is ex officio a member of the Convention.

OFFICERS—Moderator, Rev. Richard D. Pierce, 50 Chestnut Street, Boston 02108; Treasurer, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy 02169; Scribe, Rev. Virgil E. Murdock, 239 Commonwealth Avenue, Boston 02116.

DIRECTORS—Rev. Charles C. Forman, Box 43, Plymouth 02362; Rev. Fred F. Goodsell, 289 Woodward Street, Waban 02168; Rev. Lawrence M. Jaffa, Powderhouse and Lowell Roads, Groton 01450; Rev. Harold F. Worthley, PO Box 1026, Norton 02766.

Applications for aid may be addressed to either the Moderator or the Treasurer.

MASSACHUSETTS CONGREGATIONAL CHARITABLE SOCIETY

Incorporated in 1786. Organized to hold the funds of the Convention. Composed of fifteen clergymen and fifteen laymen, elected from both branches of the Congregational body. Aids the needy widows and unmarried daughters of deceased Congregational clergymen who have had settlement in Massachusetts. President, Hon. Charles S. Bolster; Vice-President, Mr. Marcus Morton; Secretary, Rev. Bradford E. Gale; Treasurer, Mr. Alfred P. Putnam; Committee on Appropriations, Rev. Myron E. Fowell, Rev. Bradford E. Gale, Rev. Vaughan Dabney and Rev. Robert Day.

Applications for aid should be made to Rev. Bradford E. Gale, 1306 Hancock Street, Quincy, 02169.

CONDITIONAL GIFTS

The Conference receives conditional gifts, subject to annuity agreements with the donors, and encourages this method for those who wish any part of their property to be applied to our work after their death, and desire an assured income from their property for themselves, or for others whom they may designate as beneficiaries, as long as they live. Correspondence with the Treasurer concerning such annuity agreements is invited.

TRUST FUNDS

The Massachusetts Congregational Fund, organized during the year 1945 under the auspices of the Conference, is now administering trust funds of Congregational churches and organizations in Massachusetts aggregating $12,873,083, including the funds of the Conference.

It is not an easy matter for church or parish committees, often made up of those without broad experience in investment matters, to guard the safety of church trust funds. We welcome inquiries from Congregational churches in Massachusetts relative to caring for their trust or endowment funds.
